

CHITRANSH PATHAK

Profile

Throughout my professional journey, I have always been driven to seek out new challenges and opportunities to broaden my skill set. I was fortunate enough to have the chance to work in paid internship and AIESEC provided me practical knowledge in a variety of roles that proved invaluable in my career development. Looking to the future, my ultimate aspiration is to become a successful entrepreneur with a passion for both technology and business. With my extensive experience in managing few aspects of business development, as well as my exceptional leadership, time management, and problem-solving skills, I am confident in my ability to navigate high-pressure situations with ease and finesse.
